

Provincial Commissioners

Meet the PC Team

Margaret Utgoff, Provincial Commissioner

Margaret has held a wide variety of positions throughout her 34 years as both a girl and adult Member. Margaret has lived in four provinces and has been a Member of Guiding in three. She has been a Unit Guider with both Pathfinders and Cadets and has been an area commissioner & program adviser and provincial program director. She has also held positions at the national level including deputy chief commissioner. Currently Margaret is a trainer and a member of a Trefoil Guild. She has been married for 34 years and she and her husband, Dima, share their life as well with a golden retriever named Digby. Margaret lives in Edmonton. Margaret's focus, other than leading Alberta Council, is the area commissioners.

Carol Moeller, Deputy Provincial Commissioner

Carol has been involved in Guiding for 36 years, including six as a youth Member. She has been a Guide Guider, Pathfinder Guider, provincial secretary and provincial publications adviser. Carol has three children and four granddaughters. She is secretary for Edmonton Public Schools. Carol's focus will be the supporting committees and the provincial office.

Susan Sarrasin, Deputy Provincial Commissioner

Susan has been involved in Guiding for 31 years. She was a youth Member for 10 years in Quebec as well as a Guide and Ranger Guider, moving to Alberta in 1974. Susan became a Brownie Guider when her older daughter became a Brownie then a Guide Guider when both of her daughters were Guides. She was our provincial treasurer from 2003 – 2008 and international selections Chair in 2009. Susan lives in Calgary with her husband Wally and two cats, Romeo and Juliet. She has three children and four grandchildren. Susan is an accountant with a CGA designation currently working for Canada Revenue Agency. Her focus on Alberta Council is the standing committees.